

CACH CAPITAL Management Hosts at Consular Ball Honoring Germany

Chairman Geoffrey S. Connor wins International Service Award

OCTOBER 20, 2007—AUSTIN, TX—CACH Capital Management hosted the nations of Saudi Arabia and Singapore at the 56th Annual Consular Ball honoring Germany.

The event took place in Houston, Texas at the Intercontinental Houston Hotel, and the distinguished guests included Prince Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia and Joanne King Herring, who will be characterized by Julia Roberts in the upcoming movie "Charlie Wilson's War". Former President George H. W. Bush was the honorary chairman of the event, but was unable to attend.

At the event, CACH's Chairman of the Board, Geoffrey S. Connor, received the International Service Award (ISA). Connor, a former Texas Secretary of State who was also in charge of the state's international economic development and tourism, brings a long and distinguished international record of public service to CACH Capital. A regular participant in the Consular Ball, Connor served as Chairman of its Patrons' Committee in 2005, and in his interactions with various Consulates and Honorary Consulates, he has hosted a wide range of foreign dignitaries in their visits to Texas.

CACH CEO Michael Hundley was extremely pleased about his company's participation in the Consular Ball. "Not only are we honored to have hosted these countries at this incredible event, we are very proud that we could make a difference in the international community. The ISA Award is a great recognition of our Geoffrey's efforts, and the efforts of firms like CACH, to help create a "one world" vision. No one is more deserving of the award than Geoffrey Connor. "

The Consular Ball is not the only example of CACH's growing international presence. The company's officers traveled to Toronto, Canada on October 18, 2007, visiting with both Canadian and U.S. groups. CACH was invited to participate in helping train and educate businesses and individuals in Canada about hedge fund management. CACH has also visited Dubai, Pakistan, and is expected to participate in exploring potential opportunities in Qatar and the United Arab Emirates before the year's end.
