CACH Capital Management, LLC Honors Senate Chairman Soomro of Pakistan

-Former interim Prime Minister of Pakistan introduced to Central Texas business leaders-

Austin, Texas, July 17, 2008 — CACH Capital Management, LLC hosted a private luncheon today for Mohammedmian Soomro, the former Prime Minister and current Senate Chairman of Pakistan. Acknowledged as a leader in business development in Pakistan, Mr. Soomro has held top positions with six banks in Pakistan, Bahrain and Yemen including Bank of America. Former Texas Secretary of State Geoffrey S. Connor, CACH Chairman, and Michael J. Hundley, President and CEO of CACH, organized the event which was held at the Headliner's Club today.

Being a global firm focused on wealth management, CACH understands and values the political personalities that have an influence on national economies. Chairman Soomro has unique insight into the economic and political influences that are crucial for forging business relationships between Pakistan and the Texas economy.

A list of distinguished local business leaders were invited to gain Chairman Soomro's perspective on the Pakistani economy and political scene. The luncheon represents a grassroots effort on behalf of CACH Capital to share Mr. Soomro's expertise with the firm's relationships.

Chairman Soomro's political career includes serving as the former Governor of Sindh prior to running in the Senate elections. His investment and financial business acumen were developed at Bank of America, International Bank of Yemen, Faysal Islamic Bank of Bahrain, Muslim Commercial Bank, Agriculture Development Bank of Pakistan, Federal Bank of Cooperatives and National Bank of Pakistan.
