CACH Capital Management Chairman Steps Down

- Geoff Connor completes role in initial launch -

AUSTIN, TEXAS – September 23, 2008 – CACH Capital Management, an Austin-based SEC Registered Investment Advisor Firm, announced today that Geoff Connor is stepping down as chairman.

“I have enjoyed my last two years as chairman of CACH and I’m excited to have been part of its launch,” stated Connor. “In spite of market turbulence, we have raised the company to about $50MM by outperforming our benchmarks while providing superior customer service. I will continue to be involved, of course, but I now need to turn my primary attention to other matters.”

Connor was one of the original founders of CACH and has served as chairman since the formation of the company in July 2006. Connor will retain an ownership interest in the firm and will remain on the board of directors.

“Having Geoff along with his knowledge and experience as chairman at CACH has contributed to our success,” said CACH President & CEO Michael Hundley. “We are very pleased that he will remain active on the board. We wish Geoff all the best in his future endeavors and are grateful for his participation in our launch.”

Aside from CACH Capital Management, Connor is one of the founders and the principal of Texas Global, LLP, a consulting firm on international business and marketing matters. Connor also is a registered lobbyist in Texas working for a variety of business interests both foreign and domestic, as well as an attorney and co-founder of Connor and Demond, a general civil practice firm with an emphasis on state regulatory, environmental and immigration law matters. Formerly, Connor held the post of Texas Secretary of State. Connor is frequent speaker and is involved in many community, church, professional and charitable activities.
